

Interview with FRIDA Magazine

Can you name all of the Backstreet Boys?

Rebecca: No, not one. I mostly listen to jazz, blues and Marilyn Manson.

Alexandra: Nick... B-Rok... someone ugly... they are all shit ugly anyway.

What do you want to do on a Friday night?

Rebecca: Dinner with my boyfriend, invite some friends over, listen to music...

Alexandra: Go out with friends. I'm still in the teen party stage and feel comfortable there.

The answer is "absolutely not!" What is the question?

Alexandra: Filippa K pants.

Rebecca: Oh, there's so much. I'll say, "Hit my children."

What is Sweden's most overrated band?

Rebecca: The Graaf Sisters.

Alexandra: Emila. She radiates too much cosiness.

Why do you think famous girls often have famous boyfriends?

Rebecca: (Dating 24-year-old director David Flamholc): Because it is common to meet people in the same circles.

Is it like you thought to be famous?

Rebecca: Yes, I was famous when I was little too. I was in Sunes jul.

Alexandra: I don't think I'm famous! I don't get it either.

What would you do if you ruled the world for a week?

Rebecca: Take a week's wages from everyone who has over 60,000 per month and give them to those who have nothing.

Alexandra: I would remove all prejudices. And overturn all bad leaders and try to help the countries that are wrong.

Have you been in love with a celebrity at some point?

Rebecca: I liked Eva in the children's program Five Ants Are More Than Four Elephants when I was a kid. When New Kids on the Block were famous, I tried to like them, but I couldn't.

Alexandra: I'm in love with Damon Albarn of Blur!

1998-11-26

FRIDA

Source:

<http://home.swipnet.se/jesaja/alexandra/arkiv/reportage/frida/frida.htm>

Translated by: <http://alexandra-dahlstrom.net>