

Major New Role in the Works for Dahlström

It's time for another big role for Alexandra Dahlström from Show Me Love. She'll play one of the leads in Kjell Sundvall's comedy film In Bed With Santa.

- It's a terribly funny script, says Alexandra Dahlström.

Much of Sweden's acting elite want in on Sundvall's black comedy, which is about a Christmas Eve celebration that goes overboard when a couple decides to invite their ex-partners and their families. Among others, Peter Haber, Dan and Anders Ekborg, Jessica Zandén and Leif Andréé have roles in the film.

Join The Cast

And now joining the already weighty ranks is Dahlström. This is the first movie role she's done since Show Me Love and tonight will probably award her a split Guldbagge award.

- Mom thinks that I shouldn't work anymore during this school term, but I'll do this movie. Filming will not be that long - it's about ten days, she says.

Comprehends Mobile

So far she wants to be secretive about the film and her role, but says:

- There is a girl who speaks very highly of her mobile phone.
- She is one who observes and comments on the action. "Is this what you become when you grow up?"

At the film festival in Gothenburg, her co-star in Show Me Love, Rebecca Liljeberg and director Lukas Moodysson attend. Dahlström couldn't leave school but in about a week, she will be traveling with the film to Berlin.

- All three of us will go to the Berlin Film Festival. It will be very fun.

1999-02-08

Gunnar Rehlin

Source: <http://home.swipnet.se/jesaja/alexandra/arkiv/reportage/svd-990208/alex.html>

Translated by: <http://alexandra-dahlstrom.net>