

Just home from Moscow, Alexandra Dahlström arrives at Aftonbladet to talk to some readers online.

Photo: Andreas Hillergren

"...When Elin wants to do drugs is my favourite scene"

In Moscow promoting Show Me Love one day, chatting with Aftonbladet the next.

Yesterday, Alexandra Dahlström chatted with readers across the web.

- It was fun and scary to chat, says Alexandra Dahlström. You never know what questions you may get.

Though most were nice, several wanted to invite Alexandra to dinner.

Do you get fan mail at home too?

- I got three this morning, they were fine. They wanted to begin corresponding, but that's not possible. I don't have time for that.

Alexandra Dahlström has just returned from Moscow. There, Show Me Love just premiered and in Sweden it's now been released on video for sale.

What is your life like after Show Me Love?

- Sure, things have changed. But they change all the time and I can't say whether it's due to me or the movie.

What will you do this summer?

- Take it easy, but not so quiet that I get bored. Though I'll definitely not do so much that I get stressed out either.

Finally, what do you want most of all right now?

- To cut my bangs.

1999-07-01

Karin Lindstedt

Source:

<http://home.swipnet.se/jesaja/alexandra/arkiv/reportage/aftonbladets-990701/alexandrachatt.html>

Translated by: <http://alexandra-dahlstrom.net>