

Alexandra Dahlström's Norwegian Debut

Stockholm: Alexandra Dahlström from Show Me Love debuts at Sweden's Royal Dramatic Theatre in Kranes Konditori by Cora Sandel.

Dahlström was shot straight up into the top echelon of young actors alongside Rebecca Liljeberg in the storm of a success Fucking Åmål.

Currently the movie goes from strength to strength on which it appears and is an anchor at several festivals. In Norway, over 400,000 people viewed the film, which still draws people to the cinemas.

- You feel like a real actress, comments Dahlström at her debut at the theatre to Aftonbladet.

Quick Success

The 15-year-old Swedish girl has been in great demand for her efforts in Lukas Moodysson's film. Although she doesn't know quite what she is going to do.

- I imagine theatre differs greatly from film, she says.

This autumn Alexandra starts high school. She has selected the social science line and expects to get fully into both theatre and school. Dahlström will play Borghild, the daughter of the main character in Cora Sandel's novel. Alexandra is also appearing in Kjell Sundvall's new film In Bed With Santa.
