

Alexandra Dahlström with Norwegian Debut

Stockholm: Alexandra Dahlström from Show Me Love debuts on Sweden's main theatre Dramaten, with Kranes Konditori by Cora Sandel.

Dahlström was shot right up to the top echelon of young actors alongside Rebecca Liljeberg after the huge success of Show Me Love. Currently, the film is an anchor at several film festivals. In Norway, more than 400,000 people have seen the film, which still draws people to the cinemas.

- I feel like a real actor, says Dahlström to Aftonbladet at her theatre debut.

Fast Success

The 15-year-old Swedish girl has been greatly sought after since Lukas Moodysson's film. Although she doesn't know quite know why.

- I imagine that the theatre differs greatly from film, she says.

This fall Alexandra starts high school. She chose the social sciences track and expects to fully commit to both theatre and school. Dahlström will play Borghild, the daughter of the protagonist in Cora Sandel's novel, Kathinka. Alexandra Dahlström can also be seen in Kjell Sundvall's new movie In Bed With Santa.

2001-11-12

Film Web

Source: <http://www.filmweb.no/filmnytt/article695796.ece>

Translated by: <http://alexandra-dahstrom.net>