

Alexandra Dahlström Visits the Children's Village

After the tsunami, the Swedes gave millions of dollars to various charities.

Now, TV3, in cooperation with SOS Children's Villages, release a newly recorded documentary about how money is spent.

During the four presentations, viewers will follow the work of four children's villages in Bolivia, Bosnia, Cambodia and Malawi. Actress Alexandra Dahlström, musician Dogge Doggelito, author Jonas Hassen Khemiri and journalist Clara Mannheimer were visiting the children's villages on four different continents. The first program in the documentary series The Forgotten Children airs on April 7, at 22:00.
