

Film Ideas with Alexandra Dahlström

Alexandra Dahlström is sitting on this year's judge's panel and it's also her chance to present her movie ideas.

"I'm going to be tough but fair," she says.

She will judge on the basis of several criteria. First, if the history is important to the filmmaker and important to the audience, and if the filmmaker has a clear vision.

She has no specific expectations but she will listen carefully and see what comes.
