

Making a Film with Kleerup

Flinck, Dahlström & Wadling get roles in Spindelgången

Thorsten Flinck plays Kleerup's father, Alexandra Dahlström plays his ex and Freddie Wadling narrates.

Swedish actors are lined up for the independent film Spindelgången.

Thorsten Flinck, Freddie Wadling and Alexandra Dahlström are backing Andreas Kleerup.

- Andreas wanted us to cross-pollinate Film Sweden, says the Show Me Love actress.

In early August, Nöjesbladet revealed that Andreas Kleerup will play the lead role in a new Swedish-produced feature film, Spindelgången. Now it is clear that the artist, Kleerup, has a connection to the drama that producer Mille Ballai describes as an avant-garde island film.

Nöjesbladet revealed that musician Thorsten Flinck, 48, musician and actor Freddie Wadling, 58, and Alexandra Dahlström, 25, known for Show Me Love have supporting roles.

Also involved is a relative of psychologist Sigmund Freud - artist Paul Freud painting the paintings that will be seen in the picture.

"Gives me advice"

- Thorsten plays my father, who is also the boss of my ex, Alexandra Dahlström. He comes out to my island and gives me advice that I do not want. Freddie is a storyteller who comes in sometimes to tell the story, says Andreas Kleerup, who plays the main character Nathanael Coppelius.

He does not worry about there being clashes when so many free thinkers come together in the same film.

- It's like a hockey team - as long as everyone knows what to do then it will go well, he says.

Alexandra Dahlström agrees.

- Although we have strong integrity we're off in the same direction, she says.

"Brilliant film"

Andreas Kleerup asked her if she wanted to be involved. After reading the script and seeing pictures from the set of Tjorn, she was hooked.

- I think it will be a very fun and brilliant film. I believe absolutely that we do not need to worry that it'll be narrow and complicated.
