

Tonight is the gala premiere of the film Blondie

And the lead actors mingled with other celebrities inside the cinema Saga in Stockholm.

- It feels like Christmas Eve, says Alexandra Dahlström, who plays one of the lead roles, to Expressen.

Around 18:00 on Monday, celebrities began to show up at the cinema Saga in Stockholm where the movie Blondie had its gala premiere.

In attendance were the film's four protagonists: Carolina Gynning, Helena af Sandeberg, Marie Göranson and Alexandra Dahlström.

It was a happy atmosphere.

- It feels like Christmas Eve, it's a very nice venue. It's very nice to have my fellow actors here and it's a nice movie. I'm very happy, says Alexandra Dahlström to Expressen.

Helena af Sandeberg told us that it had been a privilege to work with her peers and that she thinks Jesper Ganslandt has done a good job as a director.

- It's a film I'm very proud of, so I hope people will like it, says Helena af Sandeberg to Expressen.
