

Alexandra Dahlström

SWEDEN

Alexandra Dahlström, 28 years old, was born in Sweden, raised in Stockholm, and started to act when she was 12. In spite of her icy origins, Alexandra's sunny presence stands out on the big screen. She's communicative, speaks seven languages and is an outstanding actress - in "ASTRO", Dahlström's delicate performance help paint the charismatic picture of a shy and silent protagonist. She made the spotlight in Sweden at the age of 14, starring in the film "Show Me Love", by Lukas Moodysson. The film was selected to a series of international film festivals, taking Alexandra's performance to spectators around the world. Since then, she acted in several projects, from TV series to feature films. She has also directed some productions. She was "discovered" on the Internet and her audition was made online, via Skype. In "ASTRO", Alexandra plays Astro, the protagonist, a young swede who lands in Rio de Janeiro to settle an unexpected inheritance and is taken by the city and the arts.
